

<https://development.ku.dk/>

AIM

- The aim of UCPH Global Development is to strengthen collaboration across faculties on development issues, and to continue to strengthen KU's international position in research and education in relation to global development, with a particular focus on the Global South.

Organization:

- UCPH – Global (joint platform for global UCPH networks) – HUM dean, Jesper Kallestrup, is link to LT (other deans and rectorate). Coordinates joint activities among networks.

- UCPH Global Development – Working Group

One representative from each of the six Faculties + one chair and one coordinator

<https://development.ku.dk/about-global-development/ku-uland/>

Networks and Partners

- UCPH Global Development engages in a number of networks and works with partners external as well as internal to the University of Copenhagen.
- Cross-faculty networks
- Asian Dynamics Initiative
- School of Global Health
- Sustainability Science Centre
- ThinkChina.dk
- International Networks
- International Alliance of Research Universities (IARU)
- League of European Research Universities (LERU)

Activities

- Strengthen International University Collaboration – primary through IARU and LERU (co-chair of IARU Global Transformation Group)
- Communication and support: web portal, service to the rectorate, hearing responses, public seminars/events.
- Networking across the university (with other global networks – see list)
- Funding: International Network Programs (UFM), Erasmus+, IARU funding, and match-making for funding (FFU)
- Teaching programs: IARU Borderland Field course, student exchange program (with Cape Town) etc.